

National Conference: The Power in All Our Voices

Agenda

Saturday 2 July

| Time (BST) | Session | Description | Host/Speaker |
|-------------------------------|--|---|--|
| 9-10am | Pre-Conference Australia Collaboration Call | An introduction to ACTION partners and discussion on: -What motivates you to advocate for ending global poverty? -What motivates you to be part of the RESULTS community? | RESULTS UK with RESULTS Australia Twitter: @RESULTS_AU |
| 9:30-10am | Registration | | |
| 10-10:45am | Introduction Icebreaker activity, welcome, and opening remarks | RESULTS UK Executive Director Aaron Oxley will welcome you to the session. For those joining online you will be divided into small groups of 4-5 in breakout rooms. | Aaron Oxley, Executive Director, RESULTS UK Twitter: @ATOxley |
| 10:45-11am – Tea Break | | | |
| 11-12am | Keynote Speaker The power of all our voices | Understanding the value of having different perspectives from all over the world is vital for RESULTS' advocacy work. Despite the level of interconnectedness we have these days, perspectives from those who personally experience the hardships of our issue areas are often absent from debates and decisions. | Irungu Houghton, Executive Director, Amnesty International Kenya Twitter: @irunguhoughton |
| 12-1pm | The art and techniques of storytelling Amplifying the voice of lived experience | Skill-based workshop In this session we will hear from someone who has personal experience of advocacy and storytelling to learn how we can use stories to learn, share and inspire others. | Gioel Giacchino, Director of Research, Recrear International Twitter: @gioelgio Carolina Neu, Co-researcher, Recrear International |

RESULTS

| | | | |
|------------------------------|---|--|--|
| | | We will then go into groups and plan a campaign, which will give attendees the chance to practice language and how they communicate stories on issues in context. | Twitter: @CarolinaNeuS |
| 1 - 2pm – Lunch Break | | | |
| 2-3pm | The ‘Global’ in Global Fund | RESULTS believes that the Global Fund’s work to eradicate AIDS, Malaria and TB has been and will continue to be a major part of the global response to TB. We will do a role playing activity to explore the world of funding replenishments in international development. In 2022, a crucial year for the Global Fund with its upcoming 7th replenishment, we will be hearing from an advocate from a country the Global Fund has invested in and learn about how such a big organisation works and listens to communities. | Handaa Enkh-Amgalan, Speaker and Advocate, Global Fund Advocacy Network Twitter: @Handaa_Rea |
| 3 - 3:10pm – Break | | | |
| 3:10-4pm | Strategizing for the future of RESULTS | RESULTS is reflecting on our role in the run-up to 2030, when the Sustainable Development Goals are supposed to be achieved. This interactive session will be a chance to hear what we think our priorities should be and discuss the proposals, as part of an ongoing consultation. This is open to everyone even if you are not familiar with RESULTS. | Naveed Chaudhri, Head of Campaigns, RESULTS UK Alex Runswick, Head of Policy Advocacy, RESULTS UK Twitter: @AlexRunswick |
| 4 - 4:15pm – Break | | | |
| 4:15-4:45pm | Creating a manifesto for optimism | Workshop Advocating for an end to global poverty | Ruthie Walters, Campaigns and Communications Officer, |

RESULTS

| | | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------|--|--|
| | | can be extremely challenging, especially in the current environment of reduced political will for international development, political instability, fewer resources due to the cut to the Official Development Assistance (ODA) budget, and increasing poverty levels in the UK. Due to rapidly changing contexts it can be hard to stay positive, so in this short workshop we will reflect on what keeps us going and why and how we keep campaigning. . | RESULTS UK |
| 4:45-5pm | Closing remarks | | Aaron Oxley, Executive Director, RESULTS UK |
| 7pm - Saturday social | | | |

Sunday 3 July

| Time (BST) | Session | Description | Host/Speaker |
|------------|---|---|--|
| 1:30-2pm | Reflection on the year | Welcome to day 2; reasons to get involved with RESULTS UK; and celebration of grassroots activism throughout the past year. Trustee Election pitches. | Naveed Chaudhri, Head of Campaigns, RESULTS UK |
| 2-2:45pm | Excluded voices: climate justice activists and COP26 | There were many people and voices excluded from the climate change conference 'COP26' in Glasgow in 2021. In this panel discussion, we'll hear from climate justice activists who were denied a platform at the summit or who attended and felt sidelined, question who gets a platform and why, and consider the importance of a diversity of voices at such global events. | Mustafa Gerima, Climate justice advocate and advocate of the shea nut tree species Twitter: @GerimaMustafa Yusuf Baluch, Climate justice Activist and organiser at Fridays for Future, Balochistan Twitter: @yusufbaluch |

RESULTS

| | | | |
|------------------------------|---|---|--|
| | | | Sumaiya Harunany, Climate justice activist and Founder of Blue Earth Organisation Twitter: @HarunanySumaiya |
| 2:45 - 3pm – Break | | | |
| 3-4pm | Development Stereotypes and How to Break Them | Workshop Ideas about poverty and conceptions of who ‘deserves’ international aid have been entrenched in colonialism, racism, and sexism for hundreds of years through the language we use. How can we break these cycles to reflect in our campaign efforts a development sector that is not only inclusive, but actively works against oppressive systems? | Kate McMahon, Parliamentary Advocacy Coordinator, RESULTS UK Joan Okitoi, Communications Consultant, PIRON Global Development Twitter: @J_Atiko |
| 4-4:20pm | End of event | Wrap up of the conference. | Aaron Oxley, Executive Director, RESULTS UK |
| 4:20 - 4:35pm – Break | | | |
| 4:35-5pm | Trustee Announcement and Advocacy Day Briefing | | Aaron Oxley, Executive Director, RESULTS UK |